Create a timeline that is in chronological order with the dates given. Make sure to label clearly and neatly. Read Ch. 22 section 2-3 for the following dates. After you find the date, you will need to read the information about who is fighting who, where, and why.

For example: 1776-1783 American colonist fighting British Fighting in American colonies
                              Fighting for American Independence
